STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

This matter is before the Court on the Parties' Joint Motion for Entry of Stipulated Protective Order (Filing No. 23). Upon a showing of good cause in support of the entry of a protective order to control the dissemination of confidential or proprietary information in this case (hereafter collectively referred to as "Confidential Information"),

IT IS ORDERED:

The Parties' Joint Motion for Entry of Stipulated Protective Order (Filing 23) is granted.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED:

1. Confidential Information will include confidential or proprietary business information. For purposes of this Order, the following categories of documents and information will generally be considered "Confidential Information" and subject to this Protective Order:

- Plaintiff's social security number, tax identification number, alien registration number ("A number"), passport numbers, driver license numbers, and any similar numbers assigned to Plaintiff by a federal/national, state, or local government of the United States or any other country.
- Plaintiff's date of birth;

- Any information that is protected or restricted from disclosure by state or federal statute or regulation, but which the Court may order to be produced, such as information protected by the Privacy Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552a, and other statutes or regulations that may prevent disclosure of specific alien information, including but not limited to, 8 U.S.C. §§ 1160(b)(5), (6); 1186a(c)(4), 1202(f), 1254a(c)(6), 1255a(c)(4), (5); 1304(b), and 22 U.S.C. § 7105(c)(1)(C), 8 C.F.R. §§ 210.2(e), 214.11(e), 214.14(e), 216.5(e)(3)(iii), 216.5(e)(3)(viii), 236.6, 244.16, 245a.2(t), 245a.3(n), 245a.21, 1003.27(b)-(d), 1003.46, and 1208.6, which otherwise could subject either party to civil or criminal penalties or other sanctions in the event of unauthorized disclosure;
- Plaintiff's photographs and fingerprints; and
- Any other personally identifiable information identified in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5.2 and NECivR 5.3.

2. Confidential Information subject to this Protective Order may, depending on the content, be included in a variety of documents, including but not limited to the Administrative Record filed in this case.

3. Confidential Information shall not be disclosed or used for any purpose except the preparation and litigation of this case, Melnattur v. USCIS, et al., 8:21-CV-345, and will not be used in any other litigation.

4. The parties are not required to redact Confidential Information provided to the Court as part of the Administrative Record or in the Parties' summary judgment motions.

5. Confidential Information shall not, without the consent of the party producing it or further Order of the Court, be disclosed except that such information may be disclosed to:

- a. attorneys actively working on this case;
- b. any person who previously received or authored the materials;
- c. persons regularly employed or associated with the attorneys actively working on the case;
- d. Plaintiff and Representatives of Plaintiff;
- e. Defendants and Representatives of Defendants;

- f. mediators, facilitators, or other persons retained by the parties to assist in the resolution of this matter, and their staff;
- g. the Court and its employees (“Court Personnel”);
- h. stenographic reporters who are engaged in proceedings necessarily incident to the conduct of this action;

6. Prior to disclosing any Confidential Information to any person listed above (other than counsel, Plaintiff, Defendants, persons employed by counsel, mediators and facilitators, Court Personnel, and stenographic reporters), counsel shall inform such person that the document(s) being provided are subject to the Protective Order.

7. Documents shall be designated as Confidential Information by counsel by placing or affixing on them (in a manner that will not interfere with their legibility) the following notice: “CONFIDENTIAL” or “SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER” or a substantially similar designation. If the document did not originate from the party seeking to affix the Confidential Information label, or was not produced in this action by that party, the Confidential Information designation will occur upon written notice of that designation provided to all counsel of record within thirty (30) days after receipt of the information or document containing Confidential Information. Subject to the procedures in Paragraph 8, upon such notice the document will be treated as Confidential Information within the meaning of this Protective Order.

8. A party may object to the designation of Confidential Information by giving written notice to the party designating the disputed information as Confidential Information. The written notice shall specifically identify the information to which the objection is made. If the parties cannot resolve the objection, it shall be the obligation of the party objecting to the designation as Confidential Information to file an appropriate motion requesting that the Court determine whether the disputed information should be subject to the terms of this Protective Order. Such motion must generally be filed within thirty (30) days after submitting written objection to the Confidential Information designation. If such a motion is timely filed, the disputed information shall be treated as Confidential Information under the terms of this Protective Order until the Court rules on the motion. In connection with a motion filed under this provision, the party designating the information as Confidential Information shall bear the burden of establishing that good cause exists for the designated information to be treated as Confidential Information.

9. Confidential Information may be filed with the Court to the extent reasonably necessary to support motions or other matters related to the litigation. If any Confidential Information must be filed with the Court, such Confidential Information shall be filed under seal, restricted access or redacted, as appropriate.

10. At the conclusion of this case, each document and all copies thereof which have been designated as Confidential Information shall be returned to the party designating them as confidential. The parties may agree to destroy documents containing Confidential Information by way of a mutually agreed-upon procedure.

11. A party or counsel may not unilaterally modify any document so as to remove it from the protections of this Protective Order. Any document subject to this Protective Order when produced will remain protected unless the parties agree in writing to remove the designation, or as otherwise ordered by the Court.

12. This Protective Order may be amended by written stipulation of the parties, or by the Court for good cause shown upon notice to all counsel and an opportunity to be heard. This Protective Order is without prejudice to the right of any party to admit Confidential Information as evidence or in this action contest the admissibility, discoverability, or privileged status of any document or information.
